

Gretel

- 17 I'm finding all kinds of magic herbs. Some might even help reverse your curse Hansel or do you want to stay as Gretel #2?
- 32 Oh! I can help with that. I know where all the good herbs grow.
- 62 It's a long story. The short version? An evil witch cast a spell on Hansel here. Now he looks more like me.
- 66 Yes, you could say that. I know almost every herb in this forest, and if it's out here, I will find it. I hope one of them will be the key to changing Hansel back.
- 70 You're telling us. But we aren't beginners. After what we've been, nothing here really scares us.
- 74 That was... odd. Not a normal breeze, was it?
- 78 And it is probably good to keep moving. Good luck with those deliveries. If you meet any witches... don't mention us.
- 128 It's guiding us somewhere, but what are we supposed to find?
- 137 You caused this storm!
- 144 So... did you cause this storm or not?
- 151 A magical healing herb garden?
- 166 If it's anything like her other potions, we might end up looking all like me.
- 178 (pointing toward the clouds) Look at that! It seems like we got here just in time.
- 195 To heal and protect those around us!
- 211 I like that! We're all part of something bigger, a kind of story that's ours.
- 227 So... maybe we should keep working on changing you back?
- 229 Twin troublemakers! I like the sound of that.
