

Hansel

- 16 Breadcrumbs? No, not this time Gretel. I've got my compass, GPS, and map. No more getting lost!
- 18 Very funny. If I wasn't behind you, the witch would have cursed you instead.
- 35 Thanks again. (crosses arms) Any chance you'll reverse it, Witch?
- 53 I'll map the best route! I'll make sure no one gets lost.
- 61 Oh, no, we aren't sisters. My name is actually Hansel, this is Gretel. You see there was this witch who.....
- 64 More like an "unwanted twin." I'm trying to find a way to fix it. (holds up his compass) And it starts by knowing exactly where we are. Which we do... Mostly!
- 68 Yeah. But I'm actually a forest-tracking expert now. No more getting lost for us. I can follow the sun, shadows, the stars, and because Gretel knows the plants, we are like a two-person rescue team.
- 72 Jams? Like...for bread?
- 75 No. I don't need a compass to tell me something strange is going on.
- 77 Not yet, but we've seen stranger things. If something's out there, we'll work it out.
- 121 Do you two feel the strange wind too?
- 129 (pulling out his compass) There's something powerful up ahead. My compass can feel it, even if it can't find north!
- 139 Well, yes, you are a witch.
- 160 (At the front) Alright, everyone! Let's put our skills to the test and make it to the top.
- 174 I think there was too much courage in that bottle.
- 179 That storm looks powerful. How can we to stop it. Witch, you said you could help, didn't you?
- 194 To find the right way forward!
- 210 A fairy tale united in purpose!
- 228 Actually, I think I quite like this! We can stay as twins. It's perfect for playing tricks and keeping everyone guessing!
- 240 Me especially.
