

Red Riding Hood

- 19 Anyone hungry? I've got fresh food from Grandma. It's much better than just delivering goodies. I get to make them, too!
- 52 And I can add some recipes too. Everyone loves a good home-cooked meal!
- 59 Hello there! Are you two... sisters?
- 63 Ohhh, I get it. Like an... accidental new look?
- 65 (looking at Gretel's basket) And... are you picking herbs to help with the curse? Or, wait, maybe it's for some other, more mysterious potion?
- 67 That's pretty clever. I guess you two wander around forests a lot?
- 69 Are you sure you never get lost? Not even a little bit? Because forests like these, well... they're not very friendly.
- 71 Well, maybe I'll need rescuing soon. I'm taking a shortcut to deliver Grandma's fresh jams. She's a celebrity in our village for her recipes.
- 73 Yup. But the best kind of jam with wild berries, secret herbs, a dash of magic. She's fussy about ingredients, so I know the forest pretty well like you. Just... for me no curses, only wolves.
- 76 Any guesses on what's causing this?
- 79 Don't worry, I won't. Good luck with that curse, Hansel.
- 135 And if we run into trouble, just follow me. I'm great at dodging danger!
- 149 An army of friendly wolves?
- 163 I can scout ahead if to see if there is anything tricky up the path!
- 171 This is so easy. I could wrestle five wolves as well as climb this.
- 181 This feels almost like a Hermione spell. Complex and focused.
- 200 To defend those who can't defend themselves!
- 212 I always thought I'd be alone in my story. Turns out, we're better together.
- 231 And if you need some jams, I'm here. Might even work out a few recipes of my own!
- 247 Plus, I think we're pretty good at fighting storms together now!
