

Sleeping Beauty

- 4 Phew! I am off to sell my designs to a new kingdom.
- 6 Yes. Everyone likes "enchanted chic" now. But sometimes, I wonder if it was easier just sleeping in a tower.
- 8 True! I have missed a lot of trends over the last century.
- 24 Charming, when was the last time one of us needed rescuing?
- 112 Honestly, I was better off sleeping in a tower than lugging these samples all over the forest. (sighs) The things I do for business..
- 114 Oh, Belle! Yes. But it seems I am more of a delivery service these days. How about you? (noticing the book) Are you still reading every book you can find?
- 116 True. I thought it was just a breeze messing up my samples.
- 118 Well, let's hope it's not for a curse. (sighing, adjusting her basket) Though if it is, at least we've got some survival skills between us.
- 125 And look, every fairy tale hero or heroine you can imagine. If that's not magic, I don't know what is.
- 146 (holding her fabric) Alright, we get it! But how do we fix it?
- 157 Okay! If we're going to do this then we'll need all of us. So, what do you say, Witch?
- 173 (trying not to giggle) Focus, everyone! Oh look no hands!
- 176 (catching her breath) We did it! Finally at the top!
- 193 To inspire through fashion!
- 221 How about "The Charming Avenger"?
- 235 Just because I'm designing doesn't mean I'm done with adventures! Maybe I'll launch a "Sleeping Beauty" collection... rest and style for everyone!
